IMPORTANT

Scheduling Date Window: OPIs are challenging to schedule because there are several levels of different people involved. Ultimately, your OPI date and time comes down to availability of the Test Examiner (native speaker).

- 1. Start Date: The first date of your availability window must start a minimum of TWO WEEKS from today.
- 2. Ideally, you should provide a minimum two-week window for your availability. The more, the better.

FIRST DATE of your availability window: _____

LAST DATE of your availability window: _____

If your window is too narrow, there's a chance that a native speaker will not be available. In that case, your request will automatically be cancelled by the system, and we'll need to resubmit your request from scratch.

Once scheduled, OPIs MUST BE CANCELLED NO MORE THAT 24 HOURS PRIOR TO YOUR INTERVIEW. If not, you will have to wait 30 days to resubmit your OPI request. A "no show" also results in a significant loss of money for the Marine Corps.
