

YOU HAVE CHOICES

RESTRICTED REPORTING

Marine & Family Program, Counseling Services can provide confidential support and information regarding domestic violence abuse, without reporting to law enforcement or the service member's command. Victim advocacy services are provided.

Who May I Disclose the Abuse to keep information confidential?

- Victim Advocate
- Health Care Provider
- Victim Advocate Supervisor

If domestic abuse is disclosed to someone other than those listed above, it may result in command and FAP notification and law enforcement investigation.

UNRESTRICTED REPORTING

An official investigation may occur and the Command and Family Advocacy is notified. Victim Advocacy and Family Advocacy services are offered. At the victim's request, healthcare providers will conduct any forensic medical examination deemed appropriate. Incident details will be limited to personnel with a legitimate need to know.

VICTIM ADVOCACY PROGRAM

YOU ARE NOT ALONE

YOU DESERVE A LIFE WITHOUT VIOLENCE AND FEAR.

HAWAII.USMC-MCCS.ORG

DOES YOUR PARTNER:

- Look at you or act in ways that scare you?
- Control what you do, who you see or talk to, or where you go?
- Intimidate you by breaking things or punching holes in the walls?
- Shove you, slap you, choke you or hit you?

What is Domestic Violence?

A pattern of violent behaviors that adults use against their intimate partner. Abuse can cause injury or even death, but it doesn't have to be only physical. It also includes sexual, verbal, emotional and economic control over the other person.

THE FACTS

Domestic violence is not about anger, stress or alcohol. It is when one person controls, dominates and/or coerces their partner. It knows no boundaries. Domestic violence crosses all cultural, religious, educational, and socioeconomic backgrounds.

THERE IS HELP

USMC Victim Advocates provide information, guidance and support to victims. They are first responders. Specially trained Victim Advocates will respond to incidents of domestic violence or sexual assault 24/7, but may also be contacted during working hours by anyone with questions or concerns.
