Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2023 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2022 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2023. You had no federal income tax liability in 2022 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2022 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2023 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2024.

Your privacy. If you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c).

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay income and self-employment taxes through withholding from your wages, you should enter the self-employment income on Step 4(a). Then compute your self-employment tax, divide that tax by the number of pay periods remaining in the year, and include that resulting amount per pay period on Step 4(c). You can also add half of the annual amount of self-employment tax to Step 4(b) as a deduction. To calculate self-employment tax, you generally multiply the self-employment income by 14.13% (this rate is a quick way to figure your self-employment tax and equals the sum of the 12.4% social security tax and the 2.9% Medicare tax multiplied by 0.9235). See Pub. 505 for more information, especially if the sum of self-employment income multiplied by 0.9235 and wages exceeds $160,200 for a given individual.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2023 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2023 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter: $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \bullet $27,700 \text{ if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse} \\ \bullet $20,800 \text{ if you're head of household} \\ \bullet $13,850 \text{ if you're single or married filing separately} \end{array} \right\}$ 2 $ _____
- 3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" 3 $ _____
- 4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information 4 $ _____
- 5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 5 $ _____

STATE OF HAWAII — DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION

EMPLOYEE'S WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCE AND STATUS CERTIFICATE

INSTRUCTIONS

(NOTE: References to "married" and "spouse" are also references to "in a civil union" and "civil union partner," respectively.)

MARITAL STATUS—If you are legally separated from your spouse under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, check the Single box.

If you file as head of household on your tax return, you are treated as Single for withholding tax purposes. However, an additional withholding allowance may be claimed for this filing status.

NUMBER OF WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES—Do not claim more than the correct number of withholding allowances. However, if by claiming the correct number of withholding allowances you still expect to owe more income tax for the year than will be withheld, you may increase the amount withheld either by claiming fewer withholding allowances or by entering into an agreement with your employer to withhold an additional dollar amount.

Note: Hawaii law does NOT allow "exempt" status for withholding purposes.

NONWAGE INCOME—If you have a large amount of nonwage income, from sources such as interest or dividends, you should consider making estimated tax payments using Form N-200V or you may find that you owe additional tax at the end of the year.

TWO-EARNER/TWO JOBS—If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form HW-4. This total should be divided among all jobs. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the HW-4 filed for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the others.

FILING THE CERTIFICATE—You must file this form with your employer or your employer must withhold tax from your wages as if you were single and claimed no withholding allowances.

FILING A NEW CERTIFICATE—You SHOULD file a new certificate if you get married or are entitled to claim more withholding allowances. You MUST file a new certificate within 10 days if ANY of the following occurs:

- (a) If you are divorced or legally separated.
- (b) If your spouse, for whom you have been claiming a withholding allowance, commences claiming his or her own withholding allowance on a separate certificate.

- (c) If a dependent for whom you claimed a withholding allowance no longer qualifies as a dependent.

You MUST file a new certificate on or before December 1 in case of the death of your spouse or the death of a dependent, unless such event occurs in December.

WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCE FOR AGE—You may claim an additional withholding allowance for age if you are at least 65 years old and no one can claim you as a dependent. If you are married and filing a joint return, you may also claim an additional withholding allowance if your spouse is at least 65 years old, no one else can claim your spouse as a dependent, and your spouse is not already claiming such withholding allowance for himself/herself on a Form HW-4.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD—Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your qualifying child or any other person who is your dependent.

PENALTIES—Penalties are imposed for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or for willfully failing to supply information.

CERTIFIED DISABLED PERSON—See the section, "What Is Not Subject to Withholding" in Booklet A, Employer's Tax Guide.

NONRESIDENT MILITARY SPOUSE—Under federal law, the State is prohibited from subjecting the income received by a service member's nonresident spouse for services performed (i.e., wages) in Hawaii to Hawaii's income tax beginning tax year 2009 if certain conditions are met. See Tax Information Release No. 2010-01 and Tax Announcement No. 2019-01 for further details.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION—Contact your employer or the Department of Taxation at 808-587-4242 (toll-free at 1-800-222-3229).
